
From: Save the Stan <savethestan@gmail.com>
Sent: Wednesday, February 10, 2016 11:05 AM
To: Howard, Tom@Waterboards; Marcus, Felicia@Waterboards; Dadamo, Dorene@Waterboards; Moore, Steven@Waterboards; Doduc, Tam@Waterboards; WateBoardsPublicAffairs, OPA@Waterboards; Spivy-Weber, Frances@Waterboards
Subject: Don't kill agriculture

State water board,

I do not think unimpaired flows should be increased on the Stanislaus River. It seems Northern California is having unfair amounts of water taken to supply Southern California. Should the water board continue their water grab, for whatever reason, they will be responsible for irrefutable damage to -- and perhaps the end of -- Northern California farms.

Thank you.

Shirley Massone
Manteca