

Chairman Felicia Marcus,

I'm a native Californian & I've watched the drought taking over our state. My sister is a horticulturalist in the Central Valley & she spends every day trying to balance the needs of farmers & the health of our natural habitat. There is a way to meet in the middle of these two needs without sacrificing one cause on the altar of the other. Our watershed needs yearly replenishment, & that begins with our rivers. Please vote to increase the flow of →