

STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS

Paul S. Hofmann

Education: B.S., Wildlife Management, Humboldt State University
M.S., Natural Resources/Wildlife, Humboldt State University

Experience: 1977-1980 - Graduate Assistant, Humboldt Foundation.
Work resulted in M.S. Thesis "Ecological and Biological Aspects of the Common Snipe in California".

1984-1985 - Coordinator of Field Studies, Aleutian Canada Goose Project, Humboldt Foundation.
Supervised field studies of the endangered Aleutian Canada goose in California.

1985-Present - Wildlife Biologist, California Department of Fish and Game, Selenium Verification Study. Participate in an intensive assessment of selenium and trace elements in California's biota.