

Qualifications of Frederick A. Meyer, Associate Fishery Biologist

Region 2, California Department of Fish and Game

Education: B.S. from Cornell University, Ithaca, New York; one semester at U. C. Davis

Experience:

Employed by the California Department of Fish and Game since graduation from college in June, 1960 - 31 years total work experience.

- 1960-61. Junior Aquatic Biologist. Age and growth studies of centrarchids in warmwater reservoirs.
- 1961-64. Assistant Fishery Biologist. Inland Fisheries Branch staff. Summarize data on golden trout, rough fish, and aquatic plant control, and answer public queries. Includes six months active duty with the U. S. Army Reserves and four months of half-time work while attending U. C. Davis.
- 1964-65. Assistant Fishery Biologist, Region 2 inland fisheries management. Various management studies with emphasis on Lake Almanor, Plumas County.
- 1965-66. Associate Fishery Biologist, Region 3 water projects evaluation. Fish and Wildlife analysis of many water and land projects in the Bay region.
- 1966-75. Associate Fishery Biologist, Environmental Services Branch staff. Fish and wildlife evaluation of state Davis-Grunsky and federal water projects.
- 1975-80. Associate Fishery Biologist, Region 2 environmental services. Analysis of the fisheries impacts of land and water development projects in the Sacramento region.
- 1980-present. Associate Fishery Biologist, Region 2 inland fisheries management. Management of waters in the southern half of the Sacramento region and anadromous fish studies.

Major Publications:

- Meyer, Frederick A. and Bobby J. Mapes, 1980. The SOFAR Project (FERC No. 2761) and its impact on fish and wildlife. DFG Region 2 rept.
- Meyer, Frederick A. 1974. A partial bibliography on downstream migrant king (chinook) salmon (Oncorhynchus tshawytscha). DFG Env. Serv. Br. Adm. Rept. 74-3.
- Flint, Richard A. and Frederick A. Meyer, 1977. The DeSabra-Centerville Project (FERC No. 803) and its impact on fish and wildlife. DFG Region 2 rept.
- Meyer, Frederick A. 1970. Development of some larval centrarchids. Prog. Fish. Cult. 32(3):130-136.

Meyer, Frederick A. 1965. Golden trout waters of California. DFG In. Fish. Adm. Rept. 65-1.

Boles, Hallett D., Frederick A. Meyer and David P. Borgeson, 1964. Packer Lake experimental trout management. DFG In. Fish. Adm. Rept. 64-12.

Meyer, Frederick A. 1964. Aquatic plant control. DFG In. Fish. Adm. Rept. 64-2.

Meyer, Frederick A. 1963. Rough fish control. DFG In. Fish. Adm. Rept. 63-10.

Professional Affiliations:

Member of the American Fisheries Society and Wildlife Society.

Past president of the Sacramento Chapter, Wildlife Society.

Certified wildlife biologist, Wildlife Society.