ATTENTION: Mr. Harrison Smitherum

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of December 6, 1951, wherein you designated January 8, 1952, as the date for a conference with your department on Applications 5169 and 6534. I will inform you that this was not acknowledged previously as up until yesterday it was the intention of our Attorney, Mr. John Robinson, and myself to be in Sacramento on that date. Yesterday Mr. Robinson informed me that on account of court matters it would be impossible for him to make the trip. I am therefore requesting that the date for this conference be extended to another date that would be satisfactory to all concerned. Please suggest another date at your convenience.

Yours very truly,

Chester C. Taylor
