

PERMIT TERM 94A – San Francisco Bay

Title: Reserved Jurisdiction - San Francisco Bay Large Projects

When Used: For large projects on the remaining tributaries to San Francisco Bay (below Collinsville) when hydraulic continuity with the Bay exists, or is likely to exist, during the requested diversion season (see note at bottom of page for definitions).

Term:

The State Water Resources Control Board reserves jurisdiction over this permit to change the season of diversion to conform to later findings of the Board concerning protection of beneficial uses of water in San Francisco Bay. Action to change the season of diversion will be taken only after notice to interested parties and opportunity for hearing.

(0000094A)

Note - Small projects are those for less than 1 cfs by direct diversion or 100 afa by storage. Large projects are those for more than these amounts. Streams tributary to Suisun Marsh are those entering the system from the north between Collinsville and Benicia.
