

I live about 20 miles from the Salton Sea and am very concerned about the short and long term environmental impact that the diminishing Sea has on wildlife, birds and the overall ecosystem. I would hope that someone from Sacramento will take the time to come down to see the beauty that could/should exist there today and in the future, much as it once did. It is a critical element to life here in the Coachella Valley.

Thank you for your consideration.

Joni Paddock
45565 Torrey Pines Court
Indio, CA 92201